General Information:

COSO - Powder-Coated Stainless Steel Barbecue.

Compact, versatile, and highly functional, Coso redefines outdoor cooking through a modular approach. Available in pellet or electric configurations, it offers flexibility between traditional flame cooking and precise, modern heat control.

The pellet system features two AISI 316 stainless steel burners with an approximate 2-hour burn cycle, while the electric version runs two glass cooking plates at 120V. Interchangeable cooking surfaces allow seamless transitions between grilling and pot cooking.

Mounted on wheels, Coso is designed for movement—bringing a professional cooking experience into a compact, mobile format.

Material:

Powder Coated Stainless Steel - Barbecue, Steel / Glass - plates
